

SHOREWAY ENVIRONMENTAL CENTER

The new Shoreway Environmental Center, owned by the South Bayside Waste Management Authority and operated by South Bay Recycling, is a national model for innovative recycling and material handling operations, and sustainable building practices.

Key Features:

- New state-of-the-art single stream Materials Recovery Facility (MRF)
- Expanded Transfer Station
- Expanded Public Recycling Center
- Improvements to traffic and customer convenience and safety
- “Green Building” features including white roof (cool roof), natural lighting and photovoltaic panels
- New Environmental Education Center

Groundbreaking:
December 2008

Estimated Costs:
$25.42 million - Building and
Traffic improvements
$16.87 million - MRF
processing equipment

Rethink waste
South Bayside Waste
Management Authority
Simple. Smart. Green.

SHOREWAY EDUCATION CENTER

