

Shoreway Environmental Center
Shoreway Facility Operations Monthly Reporting
February-18

Dear Joe:

Fiber values remain weak and continue to fall. In February, the per ton price for Cardboard (OCC) reduced $42.27 per ton from prior month to $107.73 per ton. We anticipate a $30 per ton reduction in price in the first half of March, and perhaps even lower by the end of the month. Sorted Mixed Paper (SMP) fell $20.64 per ton from prior month to $9.36 per ton. SMP pricing is anticipated to be a charge in the first half of March.

With the advent of China's National Sword, U. S. MRFs are unable to produce a paper product that can meet the stringent quality standards set by China of 0.05%. To meet China's strictly enforced material quality standard, MRFs are exploring purchasing and installing costly fiber optical sorting equipment that may be able to produce a Sorted Residential Paper (SRP) that can be sold to China at a much higher price than secondary markets. In the meantime, it's been rumored that some MRFs have begun sending mixed paper to the landfill.

China's ban on post-consumer mixed plastics has essentially rendered this market obsolete. Buyers are no longer providing pricing for this material, and in the rare occasions when they do, it is at a charge of $80 plus per ton. Plastic markets for #1PET and #2 HDPE are stable, but for most other grades there are no markets and as such those materials are being disposed of.

The significant changes to China's commodities import laws is and will continue to have a powerful and negative impact on fiber pricing. Secondary markets (i.e., Vietnam, Malaysia, Indonesia, Taiwan, etc.) are already overwhelmed with tonnage and low-priced offers from U.S. and Europe, and may not be a long-term solution for moving Sorted Mixed Paper (SMP), which could make product movement impossible.

The crisis impacting the CA MRF business is unfolding, and it will likely take a few months to fully understand the short term (2018) and long term (2019 and beyond) consequences.
